SYLVIA BARRY started violin lessons whilst at school in Hull, where she became leader of the Hull Youth Orchestra. She then went on to study Music at Liverpool University. More recently she has led the Warrington Chamber and North Cheshire Orchestras. She has given solo recitals for Warrington Arts Council and also performed concertos by Mozart, Vivaldi, Bach and Max Bruch. Last September she became leader of the Port Sunlight Orchestra. She currently studies violin technique with Anthony Ridley.

The February concert raised £188.83 for Christ Church, Port Sunlight. Today's collection is for the Macmillan Nurses.

Our next concert will be in October (provisionally: Sunday 27th October 2002).
