PAUL DAVIS teaches physics at St Anselm's College and is a Special Sergeant with Merseyside Police. He has performed professionally with ensembles including the Philharmonia Orchestra of North Wales and for events such as the 2006 Midnight Mass from the Metropolitan Cathedral. He performs regularly with the Crosby Symphony Orchestra, the Metropolitan Cathedral Orchestra and Brass Group, Deva Brass and the Port Sunlight Orchestra.

The April collection raised £161 for Orchestra funds; today's collection is for Wirral Autistic Society. Our next concert will be on Sunday 13th December (please note altered date): for details see www.portsunlightorchestra.org.uk
